EXTREMIST MATTER -
AMERICAN INDIAN MOVEMENT

On September 22, 1973, Source One furnished information that according to the government laws and constitution established by the American Indian Movement (AIM), Dennis Banks has given John Francis Trudell the power to act on behalf of Dennis Banks in Banks' absence. Source One stated that Banks is concerned that Trudell may become too well known, which will spoil Trudell's effectiveness, as Banks has tried to keep Trudell as a silent leader of AIM. Banks is of the opinion that if he, Banks, goes to jail, Trudell will replace Banks, upon Banks' recommendation.

AIM was founded in Minnesota in 1948, dedicated to improving conditions for the American Indian. AIM recently led and participated in confrontations with local authorities in Scottsbluff, Nebraska, and the Rapid City-Custer area of South Dakota. AIM led the takeover and occupation of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, in February-May, 1973.

Source Two stated on August 29, 1973, that in view of the jailing and bond revocation of Carter Camp, John Trudell, the National AIM Co-Chairman, will assume full responsibility of the chairmanship of AIM.

Source Three furnished information on October 4, 1973, that Vernon Franklin Bellecourt was [redacted] driving a brown Toyota automobile, bearing 1973 Oklahoma license ZZ 7841.

On September 24, 1972, an individual who identified himself as [redacted] telephonically contacted the Oklahoma City FBI Office complaining that JOHN TRUDELL, along with about 80 other Indians whom he described as "militants from Milwaukee, Wisconsin", were camped on Pawnee Tribal property at Pawnee and that some of these individuals were armed. He said most of these individuals were wearing jackets with the letters "AIM" on the back.

On November 5, 1972, the Oklahoma Journal and Sunday Oklahoman, both daily newspapers in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, carried articles concerning the occupation of the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) Office in Washington, D.C. by 200-300 Indians. JOHN TRUDELL was among those Indians from Oklahoma participating in the takeover.

OC 157-1521

b7D

[REDACTED]

On July 10, 1973, OC T-1 said TRUDELL's major function in AIM is fund raising, primarily by making speeches. TRUDELL does not spend much of his time in Tulsa, Oklahoma, as he travels a good deal.

On July 29, 1973, OC T-2 stated that TRUDELL was in attendance at the AIM National Convention at White Oak, Oklahoma, and made several speeches, primarily dealing with the manner in which the whites had victimized the Indians, stolen their lands, taken their game rights, etc.; however, there was a continuing effort to insure the convention remained peaceful. TRUDELL was one of several Indians who appeared to be in charge of the convention site at that time.

On July 31, 1973, OC T-2 said TRUDELL, during the AIM National Convention, claimed he had furnished some of the heavy arms at Wounded Knee, however, he was not specific.

On August 20, 1973, OC T-3 claimed TRUDELL made a speech at the AIM National Convention at White Oak, Oklahoma, indicating he provided "heavy artillery" for Wounded Knee; that he did not want to be on the scene and face the possibility of arrest, and that he was content to work behind the scenes. He appeared to approve of violence, but was not specific as to action or plans.

On August 1, 1973, OC T-1 claimed TRUDELL in another speech at the convention called for prison reform concerning Indians; for Indian boycott of schools until Indian students were admitted with long hair; and Indian boycott of Safeway stores.

On August 2, 1973, OC T-2 said that "elections" were held at the National Convention on August 2, 1973, and JOHN TRUDELL was elected a National Co-ordinator.

On August 13, 1973, a disturbance involving between 200-300 individuals, mostly Indians, took place at the Caddo County, Oklahoma Fairgrounds, Anadarko, Oklahoma, the site of an American Indian exposition. The disturbance was result of taunting of AIM members by Indians who were not associated with AIM. Considered among the leaders of the AIM group was JOHN TRUDELL. According to Chief of Police ARTHUR RODGERS, Anadarko, Oklahoma Police Department, during the disturbance considerable pushing and shoving occurred and a female claimed TRUDELL assaulted her and subsequently filed local charges against him; however, the charges were subsequently dismissed on August 17, 1974.

On August 17, 1974, OC T-14 advised that on August 16, 1973, JOHN TRUDELL cashed a check [redacted]

[redacted] drawn on the Union Trust Bank of Washington, D.C. The check was made payable to TRUDELL and signed by [redacted].

b7C
b7D

On August 17, 1973, Chief RODGERS, supra, advised he spoke with TRUDELL at which time TRUDELL gave the impression of wanting to be a peacemaker and gave no indication of any militancy; TRUDELL indicated he knew of no planned militant action on behalf of AIM at the exposition. TRUDELL left the Anadarko area on August 17, 1973.

On August 21, 1973, OC T-3 advised that among names and addresses of individuals which appeared to be a list of current AIM National Officers was the name JOHN TRUDELL - National Co-Chairman, 1511 South Knoxville, Tulsa, Oklahoma, telephone (918) 936-8444 and (202) 296-4451.

On August 28, 1973, OC T-3 claimed that TRUDELL assumed the position of AIM National Chairman due to the alleged involvement of the other AIM Co-Chairman, CARTER CAMP, in the shooting of another AIM member. TRUDELL issued a national press release from Winner, South Dakota, on August 28, 1973, claiming AIM had launched an investigation into the shooting of CLYDE BELLECOURT, National AIM Officer.

During the period between [redacted] and [redacted] 1973, OC T-3 advised that TRUDELL and other AIM leaders were meeting in [redacted] South Dakota, to plan strategy for AIM. The following issues were among those discussed at the meeting:

b6
b7C
b7D

1. AIM wants the [redacted] Knee Defense Fund to take a five day recess in AIM affairs ... there is reportedly a split in AIM members allegiance [redacted]

2. AIM must handle the situation between CLYDE BELLECOURT and CARTER CAMP by itself, that is, without the assistance of white (non-Indian) lawyers ... statement was made that AIM asked to deal with CARTER CAMP on its own basis, that CARTER CAMP must face an Indian court and not one made up by persons of his choice. It was indicated that if an AIM member tries to shoot another AIM member, that person then faces death ...

3. A meeting following the person referred to above was held about 1/2 hour later [redacted] This meeting was primarily for AIM members, Oklahoma Chapters... it was suggested at this meeting that a strong ethical code of behavior for AIM members be adopted and there be a five or six state boycott of alcoholic beverage purchasing and drinking for AIM members to be announced in the near future. It was also indicated AIM members must improve the spirituality of their lives and be fit in body and mind. [redacted] stated AIM will soon be in a position [redacted] indicated eventhough [redacted] in the meantime they must be physically and spiritually fit to act in this manner in behalf of AIM.

b7C
b7D

4. In addition to the above matters, the following discussions concerning the Creek problem was held at the Oklahoma AIM Chapters meeting. The Creek problem is believed to involve [redacted] and the Oklahoma AIM Chapter members hope to resolve the situation involving CARTER CAMP and CLYDE BELLECOURT so they can return to Oklahoma to resolve the situation relating to [redacted] A statement was made the situation [redacted] may become violent if not settled to AIM's satisfaction.

b6
b7D

5. [redacted] who was [redacted] made the statement that RUSSELL MEANS is scared. [redacted] stated MEANS knows he started the war in Pine Ridge, S. D. and then left other to fight. [redacted] stated that if RUSSELL MEANS had not made the press release stating CARTER CAMP had shot CLYDE BELLECOURT, it could have been made to look like the 'man' had done it."

OC 157-1521

6. [] further stated the shootings of BELLECOURT by CARTER CAMP is giving AIM a bad name and funding of AIM may be withheld by some because of it.

b6
b7C
b7D

7. [] stated at this meeting some AIM members were taking sides for CLYDE BELLECOURT or CARTER CAMP and this should not take place because it will split AIM. [] further stated CLYDE BELLECOURT holds no malice for the shooting against CLYDE BELLECOURT. [] advised AIM may live or die over this incident and it is pathetic that alcohol was the cause of the shooting after all the work and sacrifice that AIM leaders and individual AIM members have put into making AIM reach its goal. The main issues discussed at these meetings were:

1. CARTER CAMP was wrong in having shot CLYDE BELLECOURT and CAMP understands he will have to face the Indian community to answer for this conduct. It was also stated RUSSELL MEANS was wrong in furnishing information to the press that CAMP had shot BELLECOURT.

2. It was indicated this incident should serve as an example for the younger members of AIM of the bad effect that alcohol can have on the AIM movement.

3. JOHN TRUDELL stated [redacted] must also be held responsible for his actions in regard to the shooting since he had been causing trouble and had [redacted] CARTER CAMP, who was sleeping as a result of his excessive drinking and tired condition. CARTER, [redacted] became involved in a situation wherein he shot CLYDE BELLECOURT.... the statement was made at this meeting the movement is resolved in a conspiracy to weaken or break AIM and the conspiracy involves the Government making strategic moves to give "AIM enough rope," until the AIM leaders and AIM movement "does itself in." In addition it was indicated the Government permitted CARTER CAMP to be released on bail after he pulled a gun on a gas station attendant because the Government figured that if CARTER CAMP were free to do so he would eventually fight with other AIM leaders and that is what happened when CARTER shot CLYDE.

b7D

It was further indicated that emphasis of AIM action must be taken upon the national level and put back on the local level. JOHN TRUDELL, [redacted] [redacted] feel AIM must deal with the shooting situation between CARTER CAMP and CLYDE BELLECOURT in the Indian manner. They must get this situation resolved and all AIM members should return to their respective areas and tackle Indian problems in their local communities.

b6
b7D

It was indicated that JOHN TRUDELL prepared and furnished the news media a written press release concerning the shooting of CLYDE BELLECOURT. This release stated the central leadership committee of AIM having thoroughly evaluated all aspects of CLYDE BELLECOURT's shooting and determined the shooting was conspiratorial in nature, being a Government conspiracy to destroy AIM and posing a serious threat to Indian peoples in America.

OC 157-1521

On September 4, 1973, OC T-12 advised approximately one year ago JOHN TRUDELL was employed by the Oklahoman's for Indian Opportunity (OIO) as a staff member and as a result of his militant approach to his assigned duties he was dismissed from his employment. OIO was formed seven years ago by Indian leaders and is funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity in amount of approximately $239,000 per annum. The main programs of OIO are in fields of Community Development, Economic Development, Business Development, and a youth program, all for American Indians.

On September 4, 1973, OC T-11 advised TRUDELL was in Wounded Knee, South Dakota, during the uprising at the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation and believed, but was not positive, that he was instrumental in the actual takeover of the reservation in Wounded Knee. Subject and his wife also attended the AIM National Convention at White Oak, Oklahoma, during July and August, 1973. TRUDELL had made a remark that [REDACTED]

On September 5, 1973, OC T-5 claimed that JOHN TRUDELL could be contacted at telephone number (602) 729-2675.

On September 22, 1973, OC T-6 advised according to government laws and constitution established by AIM, JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL was given the power to act on behalf of DENNIS BANKS, the National Director of AIM, in BANKS' absence. BANKS was apparently concerned that subject might become too well known which would spoil his effectiveness and BANKS has decided to keep TRUDELL as a silent leader of AIM. BANKS was of the opinion that if he went to jail, TRUDELL would replace BANKS upon the latter's recommendation.

On September 27, 1973, OC T-6 advised a meeting was held on [REDACTED] including TRUDELL, participating. The topic of the conversation concerned [REDACTED]

On October 4, 1973, OC T-7 advised that VERNON BELLECOURT, at that time the Acting Director of AIM, was

On October 9, 1973, OC T-7 advised that a letter, dated September 15, 1973, signed by subject, representing the Wounded Knee Legal Defense/Offense Committee, [redacted]

RUSSELL MEANS, a member of the AIM Central Committee, [redacted] urged support for armed takeover of the community of Pine Ridge, South Dakota, similar to the Wounded Knee action and TRUDELL supported this position, arguing that violent action was necessary. The final decision called for no violent or unlawful acts.

On October 31, 1973, the Tulsa Tribune, a daily newspaper in Tulsa, Oklahoma, carried an article entitled, "Indian Peace Summit Due", indicating TRUDELL was in Tulsa attending the convention of the National Congress of American Indians. The article said TRUDELL was in town to gather support in dealing with a "crisis" in South Dakota. TRUDELL said "AIM did not take up arms for a confrontation, but as a means of defense".

On November 1, 1973, the Tulsa Tribune, supra, carried another article indicating that TRUDELL, on behalf of the American Indian Movement, would encourage the Justice Department to sue the State of Oklahoma for millions of dollars in funds (Johnson O'Malley funds) allegedly misspent on public education. TRUDELL said, "If the courts can't get the money back, then we will take other actions", however, he was not specific.

In addition, a series of AIM meetings were held at which time DENNIS BANKS resigned as the National Executive Director of AIM, effective January 6, 1974, and his position would be assumed by CLYDE BELLECOURT. BANKS would then assume the title of National Field Director and this arrangement was agreed upon by all of the prominent AIM members, including JOHN TRUDELL.

On January 28, 1974, OC T-6 advised that the following is the claimed AIM leadership:

Title	Name
National Executive Director	DENNIS JAMES BANKS
National Director	CLYDE BELLECOURT
National Chairman	JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL
National Secretary	CAROL STUBBS San Francisco, California
National Treasurer	LARRY ANDERSON Fort Defiance, Arizona
National Press Secretary	GEORGE C. ROBERTS Los Angeles, California
National Security Officer	DOUGLASS DURHAM Des Moines, Iowa

RUSSELL CHARLES MEANS and VERNON BELLECOURT hold no title; however, all important decisions are made by the AIM Central Committee, which is composed of BANKS, RUSSELL MEANS, CLYDE and VERNON BELLECOURT, HERBERT POWLESS of Milwaukee, JOHN TRUDELL, and DOUGLASS DURHAM.

OC 157-1521

In addition, OC T-6 claimed TRUDELL is in contact with other National AIM leaders [redacted] and apparently has no fixed address.

b7D

On February 9, 1974, OC T-6 claimed that subject was [redacted]

On February 21, 1974, OC T-3 advised no subsequent information had been developed concerning the whereabouts of TRUDELL, but source believed he was in the New York City area. Source was contacted [redacted] concerning TRUDELL's whereabouts, but was unable to provide information.

b7D

On February 21, 1974, OC T-4 claimed TRUDELL participated in an Indian Seminar on February 13, 1974, at the University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland, but could furnish no additional information concerning his whereabouts or activities.

On February 7, and 19, 1974, OC T-8 and on February 25, 1974, OC T-9 advised no information was available indicating TRUDELL was in the New York City area at that time and no information regarding any planned demonstrations to be held by AIM in New York City had been received.

On February 27, 1974, OC T-6 advised TRUDELL was to appear at a Wounded Knee anniversary celebration called "Indian Solidarity Day" held on the University of Minnesota campus, Minneapolis, the same date. Approximately 1,000 people attended the gathering and TRUDELL was a speaker.

On March 2, 1974, OC T-6 said TRUDELL left the Minneapolis area [redacted] and that he appears to be in constant travel status in connection with AIM activities.

b6
b7C
b7D

On March 7, 1974, OC T-6 claimed that GEORGE C. ROBERTS of Los Angeles, California, recently submitted a letter of resignation, date unknown, and there is no Press Secretary for AIM at this time. All other national officers and members of AIM Central Committee remain the same. Subject is a member of the Central Committee.

OC 157-1521

On March 6, 1974, OC T-6 claimed TRUDELL had separated from his wife and presently has no permanent address. Mrs. TINA TRUDELL allegedly returned to her home in Owyhee, Nevada. TRUDELL continues to be in frequent travel status and AIM leaders have no way of contacting him other than when he telephones them.

On April 6, 1974, Salt Lake City, Utah Police Department advised that AIM members were picketing around the Temple Square Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (LDS) on April 6-7, 1974, and that AIM leader JOHN TRUDELL arrived in Salt Lake City on April 6, 1974, to support the demonstration. TRUDELL and AIM leader VERNON BELLECOURT claimed AIM sought one million dollars for AIM to be administered by Indians outside the LDS Church. He stated if the demonstrations failed the goal of meeting with LDS Church leaders, AIM would take the grievances to the LDS people through symposiums and public meetings. The Salt Lake City Police Department believed secret meetings were held between Indians and church leaders and some concessions would be given the Indians on April 12, 1974.

On April 23, 1974, Lieutenant [] Scottsdale, Arizona Police Department, advised that following the arrests of several Indians who claimed AIM affiliation, a person identifying himself as JOHN TRUDELL and claiming to be a National leader of AIM from St. Paul, Minnesota, made an inquiry about the arrests but claimed that the arrests were not a result of an AIM organized situation. TRUDELL left without further ado and did not return.

On April 23, 1974, an article appeared in the Tulsa Daily World, a daily newspaper in Tulsa, Oklahoma, indicating that as a part of Indian Heritage Week scheduled for April 24-26, 1974, at Northeastern State College, Tahlequah, Oklahoma, a talk would be given by AIM leader JOHN TRUDELL.

On April 26, 1974, [] Director of Safety and Security, Northeastern State College, Tahlequah, said TRUDELL spoke at the college on that date to a crowd of 60-100 persons. [] who did not attend the speech, said he learned TRUDELL spoke primarily on the whitemans injustice to Indians through police terrorism, the Christian church, double standards of justice for whites and Indians, government bureaucracy, white educational system, and arguments against the BIA. He spoke for approximately one hour.

On May 11, 1974, Special Agents of the FBI were present in Farmington, New Mexico, concerning a demonstration conducted by AIM concerning an Indian Self Determination Seminar in connection with the Farmington Inter-tribal Indian Organization. During this time several speakers were present, one of which was JOHN TRUDELL.

On May 7, 1974, the Sioux Falls Argus-Leader, a daily newspaper in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and the Rapid City Journal, a daily newspaper in Rapid City, South Dakota, both carried articles concerning AIM criticism of the Minnehaha County Attorney for his handling of an apparent stabbing incident in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on Friday, May 3, 1974, involving a fight between an Indian and whiteman. In both articles TRUDELL was the main spokesman for AIM and claimed that the Indian involved in the fight was being unjustly treated. TRUDELL claimed the Indian had been harassed by white persons yelling racial slurs at the Indians.

On May 14, 1974, OC T-10 advised that TRUDELL is attempting to focus public attention on himself to project himself as the logical leader of the American Indian Movement in the event other National AIM leaders on trial in St. Paul, Minnesota, are convicted and are sentenced to prison. A bitter fight is predicted for control of the movement in the event its leaders are incarcerated.

On May 23, 1974, OC T-6 claimed TRUDELL is [redacted] and is driving a maroon 1972 Toyota Corona with unknown license plates. Source claimed that a National AIM Convention was scheduled at the Standing Rock Sioux Reservation in North Dakota, on June 8-16, 1974, with one of its items of business to be the election of new National Officers. Among those definitely eligible to vote for these officers are the various State Officers. According to [redacted] JOHN TRUDELL and a [redacted] Nevada, are the State Co-ordinators of AIM for the State of Nevada.

On May 29, 1974, the Minneapolis Tribune, a local newspaper in Minneapolis, Minnesota, stated that during the cross-examination of a witness during the trial of AIM Leaders DENNIS BANKS and RUSSELL MEANS, an AIM member identified as JOHN TRUDELL leaped from the spectators section, jumped across two rows of seats and into the well of the courtroom up to the judge's bench shouting all the way that the trial was "illegal". He was restrained by a United States Marshal who grabbed him from behind in bearhug fashion and escorted him from the room. The presiding judge barred him from the courtroom for the duration of the trial, but did not order him arrested.

Miscellaneous

At a symposium on "Racism in America" held October 19-23, 1970, at the University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon, JOHN TRUDELL spoke on "Racism and Political Power" representing the Alcatraz Indians. During 1971, TRUDELL represented the Indian Council at Alcatraz in negotiations with GSA, United States Department of Justice, and other Federal officials. The Indian Council was the group who took over the former penal facility on Alcatraz Island in November, 1969, and occupied it until their eviction in 1971.

On January 15, 1972, Captain [redacted] Lawton, Oklahoma Police Department, advised that TRUDELL was among several Indians arrested by his department on January 14, 1972, at the Lawton Board of Education Building concerning a demonstration by Indian High School students. TRUDELL was charged with Trespassing and Failure to Obey a Lawful Order; these charges were subsequently dismissed.

On October 11, 1972, a newspaper article appearing in the Daily O'Collegian, the campus newspaper at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater, Oklahoma, indicated a speech was given before a racial minorities class at the University by JOHN TRUDELL, a Sioux Indian and spokesman for many Indians who are fighting "oppression". TRUDELL criticized the whiteman's educational school system, claiming Indian children could not be taught honestly and he advocated separate schools for both Indians and whites. He further criticized the BIA for cheating Indians involving money, especially the mishandling of Johnson O'Malley funds (Indian Educational Act).

On October 15, 1972, a Mrs. [redacted] had complained that her children and other children had been asked to break out windows in the Concho Indian School located eight miles north of El Reno, Oklahoma. Several boys did in fact break out approximately $195.00 worth of windows on the night of October 14, 1972. There was no indication, however, that the juveniles involved activities had resulted from any contacts they might have had with persons involved in the American Indian Movement.

JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL

This investigation is based on information which indicates John Francis Trudell is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection) or 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), as indicated hereafter. John Francis Trudell has been identified as being actively involved in militant activities of the American Indian Movement (AIM). Since January 1973, AIM has been actively involved in demonstrations and violent confrontations with local authorities in Scottsbluff, Nebraska, and the Rapid City and Custer areas of South Dakota. From February 27 through May 8, 1973, AIM leaders and members and their supporters occupied the community of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, by force of arms taking a number of the community's residents as hostages. Before surrendering to Federal authorities, they engaged in numerous violent and destructive acts and gunfire was exchanged with Federal authorities resulting in the death of two of the insurgents.

A characterization of the AIM and Wounded Knee are set forth in an appendix page attached hereto.

JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL

On October 7, 1974, John Francis Trudell's military service records were reviewed at the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC), St. Louis, Missouri, and in summary, revealed the following information:

Trudell served in the United States Navy from August 9, 1963, until June 2, 1967. His military service number was 689 63 25 and he attained a rank and commensurate pay grade of E-2. During his tour of duty, he served on a USS Isle Royale (AD-29) and the USS Brinkley Bass (DD887). His records reflect that he was awarded the National Defense Service Medal, the Vietnam Service Medal with two stars, and the Vietnam Campaign Medal, for service during the Vietnam conflict. The records further reflect that he received an honorable discharge, although no discharge certificate was issued at the time of separation. The records further reflect that Trudell was mailed his General Discharge Certificate, discharging him from the Naval Reserve on February 10, 1970, while residing at 690 West 8th Street, San Bernardino, California.

A review of personal data contained in above records revealed the following about Trudell:

Trudell's date of birth is listed as February 15, 1946, he completed the 10th grade in school, had an AFQT score of 058, enlisted in the Navy at Omaha, Nebraska, listed his religion as Roman Catholic, Social Security Number 507-56-9115, listed his home address as Kennard, Washington County, Nebraska, and is 5'6 $\frac{1}{2}$ " tall, weighs 130 pounds, race American Indian, brown hair, brown eyes, and ruddy complexion. The records reflected numerous tattoos on both arms and hands. At the time of his enlistment, the records reflected that he was not married and had no dependents. The records listed Ricarda (Elmanza) Brown, deceased, as his mother, Clifford Joseph Trudell, Kennard, Nebraska, as his stepfather and Cecil Louise Smith Trudell, Kennard, Nebraska, as his stepmother. These records indicate that Trudell attended Center High School, Center, Nebraska, from 1961-1963, Blair High School, Blair, Nebraska, from 1960-1961, and Kennard Public School, Kennard, Nebraska, from 1958-1960. Trudell, according to the records, was employed by Marshall Nurseries, Arlinton, Nebraska, from April 1963, to May 1963, leaving to enlist in the Navy.

A review of his performance record while serving in the Navy revealed that he had an overall "trait average" was 3.03 based on a 4.0 rating system, with a military behavior rating of 2.83. The record revealed that he was judged to be a "fair to good" sailor.

A review of Trudell's disciplinary records revealed the following:

On April 6, 1965, he received commanding officer's Non-Judicial Punishment (NJP) for unauthorized absence and failure to obey a lawful order. He was found guilty and awarded 30 days correctional custody and forfeiture of half pay for one month.

On January 27, 1965, he was awarded a Summary courts martial for unauthorized absence and for missing the movement of his ship. He was found guilty and was confined at hard labor for 30 days and reduced in rank to pay grade E-1. This record revealed that Trudell executed the 30 days confinement at hard labor and was not reduced in rank by the reviewing authority.

On September 30, 1964, Trudell was awarded a Summary courts martial for unauthorized absence, was found guilty and sentenced to 30 days hard labor without confinement.

On March 2, 1964, he was awarded a Special courts martial for unauthorized absence, was found guilty and was sentenced to be confined at hard labor for a period of three months to forfeit $50 pay per month for period of three months and to be reduced to pay grade E-1. The records reflect that Trudell served two months of above confinement, forfeited $50 pay per month for two months and was reduced to pay grade E-1.

On October 4, 1974, MP T-1, a source who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that Trudell was not considered leadership material for the American Indian Movement (AIM). Source advised that he has good rhetorical delivery and is considered to be an agitator. Source advised that in the past Trudell has openly and actively supported several minority activist movements and travels extensively. Source advised that Trudell has resided at [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Source advised that Trudell's immediate family ties are in Nevada.

On October 21, 1974, captioned article, "Damn Others Philosophy Hit," which appeared in the Lincoln, Nebraska, Star newspaper, a published daily of general circulation, advised that John Trudell, "The National Chairman of the AIM," stated in Lincoln, Nebraska, that the philosophy of "damn everybody else, just so I can get what I want," is the type of thinking that has "created the Richard Nixons, the Spiro Agnews and the Dick Wilsons" of the country. The article advised that Wilson is the Tribal Chairman on South Dakota's Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. The article further advised that Trudell said that this philosophy also lay behind the efforts to "suppress" the 1973 occupation of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, and the trials resulting from the incident. The article further advised that Trudell said the Government uses the law like you use bullets in that the "government is using it to destroy us." The article advised that Trudell spoke about Indian treaty rights, the desire of Indians to live as free people and about treaty law. Trudell, according to the article, proposed that all Indian treaties should be honored by giving alternate lands to the tribes if the land in the treaty settlement is already developed. Trudell, in the article, stated that the Indians wanted the land because it will always be there, while money, the usual compensation, is transient. The article advised that Trudell, a Santee Sioux, called for an end to all Wounded Knee related trials saying, "There is no such thing as a fair trial." The article further advised that Trudell stated the Government is "dragging us" through the court system, "so that American consciousness can pretend at humanity." The article stated that Trudell, in closing his remarks stated Americans should begin thinking about government, because it is "the one instrument" which can bring people together or keep them at odds."

On November 12, 1974, MP T-2, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that information had been received indicating that Trudell had, during that month, acted as a spokesman for New York State Indians who occupied land located at Eagle Bay, New York. Source advised that Trudell was [REDACTED]

On November 6, 1974, a review of United States Government records revealed that United States Passport Number E1371426 was issued to John Francis Trudell on July 18, 1974, at Los Angeles, California, for proposed vacation travel for two weeks to England and France. This passport expires July 17, 1979, and is valid for travel to all countries except Cuba, North Korea and North Vietnam. Trudell, on his application, stated his intention to depart and return by air giving July 24, 1974, as his approximate date of departure.

JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL

These records further revealed that Trudell listed his date of birth as February 15, 1946, at Omaha, Nebraska, and reflected that his birth certificate in the name of John Francis Brown was inspected by Government authorities. Trudell's file contained an affidavit dated July 15, 1974, signed by [redacted] and [redacted] who gave their address as [redacted] California. This affidavit reads:

"We, the undersigned, knew John Francis Brown when he was born in Omaha, Nebraska 15 February, 1946, to Ricarda Brown, the sister of [redacted]. We also knew John Francis Brown when he was subsequently adopted by [redacted] in 1946. Furthermore we also knew that John Francis Brown was subsequently and thereafter known as John Francis Trudell."

Trudell recorded his permanent address as Box 117, Owyhee, Nevada, 89832, and requested his passport be mailed in care of Inca, Incorporated, 1500 Pacific Avenue, Venice, California. He gave his home telephone number as 702-757-3278 and his business telephone number as 213-392-5761. Notification on Trudell's application shows his passport was mailed to his home address on September 5, 1974.

Trudell did not identify his father on his passport application but listed his mother as Ricarda Brown, deceased, born at Ingles, Kansas, in 1927 and that he was last married on December 5, 1971, to Marureen T. Manning, who was born at Owyhee, Nevada, on January 18, 1950. Trudell requested that she be notified in the event of accident or death, at Box 117, Owyhee, Nevada.

Trudell was described as 5'7", brown hair, brown eyes and tattoo on his left hand. Trudell shows his occupation as writer with a Social Security Number of 507-56-9115.

On December 18, 1974, MP T-1 advised that Trudell, [redacted] wife, "Tina," in Owyhee, Nevada, telephone number 702-757-3278. Source also advised that Trudell has [redacted]

Source continuing advised that Trudell is a capable orator and is considered [redacted]

On December 31, 1974, source MP T-1 advised that Trudell has been involved in the area of Indian conflict/demonstrations longer than any other American Indian Movement member.

JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL

He is intelligent and extremely eloquent when he speaks. Source advised that Trudell has the ability to meet with a group of "Pacifists" and in a short time have them yelling and screaming "right on."

Source advised that he had learned that Trudell has expressed openly to National AIM leaders his desire to kidnap someone. Source advised that he had learned that the purpose of this kidnaping would be to trade the victim for something, such as dropping all charges against AIM personnel connected with state and federal violations stemming from the 1973 AIM conflicts in South Dakota, and for recognition by the United States Government of Indian tribes as sovereign nations. Source advised, however, that although Trudell talks freely about such things, he doubts that Trudell himself would become actively involved in the execution of such a plot. Source advised that Trudell is extremely unpredictable as to where he will turn up next and is very secretive concerning his movements even among close AIM associates. The source advised that Trudell and AIM National Press Secretary, George Roberts, Los Angeles, California, are fairly close associates. Source advised he had learned that Trudell did not travel to Europe as planned.

On February 26, 1975, the Albuquerque Division of the FBI reported that Trudell was a participant in the February 24, 1975, takeover of the plant owned by the Navajo Indian Tribe and operated by the Fairchild Corporation, Shiprock, New Mexico, by the AIM leaders of "Navajo Warrior Society." This takeover involved approximately 30 armed Indians demanding compensation for laid off Indian workers, reinstatement of two nurses fired by the United States Public Health Service Hospital, better working conditions at plants employing Navajos in the Shiprock area and complete amnesty for the occupiers.

It is noted that this occupation came to an end within two weeks from pressure exerted on the occupiers by leaders of the Navajo Indian Tribe.

APPENDIX

AMERICAN INDIAN MOVEMENT

The American Indian Movement (AIM) was formed in 1968 at Minneapolis, Minnesota, by Clyde Bellecourt, Dennis Banks and George Mitchell, Chippewa Indians, as a civil rights organization. Its stated goals are to secure Indian self-determination and the right to be and think Indian; to eliminate the destructive tendencies of Christianity, white-oriented education and the Federal Government from Indian life, along with the yoke of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

All AIM chapters, leaders and members are not considered to be violence-prone. Members of AIM, however, led by violence-prone leaders, participated in the takeover of the Bureau of Indian Affairs Building, Washington, D. C., during November, 1972, and participated in confrontations with local authorities, resulting in violence at Scottsbluff, Nebraska, and the Rapid City-Custer area of South Dakota. From 2/27/73, through 5/8/73, these leaders with AIM members and supporters occupied Wounded Knee, South Dakota, by force of arms. Since that time AIM leaders, members and supporters have been involved in numerous confrontations with local and Federal authorities, including the shooting and killing of a deputy sheriff in Arizona, and the severe beating of two police officers in South Dakota. A county court house, Sioux Falls, South Dakota, was extensively damaged during a disturbance at the Wounded Knee nonleadership trials.

From 1/1/75 through 2/3/75, a group of Indians led by a Wisconsin AIM leader took over the Alexian Brothers Novitiate, Gresham, Wisconsin. Subsequent court appearances by those involved in the takeover have resulted in disturbances and violence with minor injuries to numerous individuals including police officers.

AIM Leader Battles for Indian Rights

... like the old renegades

By TOMAS J. LEWIS
The Idaho Statesman

OWYHEE, Nev. — He is a Sioux Indian and his hair flows in the wind, just as that of his ancestors did years ago. And like his ancestors, he is fighting for a cause.

His name is John Trudell, the 29-year-old national chairman of the American Indian Movement (AIM).

"We're like the extension of the old renegade Indian membership," Trudell said about AIM, the group labeled by some as the most radical Indian organization.

Trudell was interviewed in his modest country home on the Duck Valley Indian Reservation, near the Idaho-Nevada border.

"AIM is maturing a little bit," he said. "We're coming to the point now where we have a fluid membership."

Trudell served as national spokesman for AIM when the group occupied the Island of Alcatraz on Nov. 21, 1969. He was chief of security during the AIM sponsored takeover of the Bureau of Indian Affairs office in Washington, D.C., in November of 1972.

Despite some disagreement among tribal leaders where Trudell resides, the AIM chairman said 70 per cent of the Indian people relate to AIM philosophy — but he admitted they may not relate to AIM's tactics.

He said were it not for community support, Indians would have closed the door on AIM a long time ago.

"We've caught hell from everybody and we've survived," Trudell said. "If the community itself did not like us, they'd shut the door."

Trudell and his wife, Tina, live with their child, Ricarda, 2, in a white clapboard home three miles south of downtown Owyhee, the citadel of the reservation.

Trudell sat in a room so small it could contain only two single sized mattresses in a corner, a couple of coffee tables and nothing more. He sat comfortably and chain-smoked as he answered questions between puffs.

Will politics of confrontation continue to be an AIM policy?

"The real question and issue is what about the system that uses the illegal tactics when it comes to its not dealing with issues like alcoholism and other problems," he said. "Those are the tactics that we're concerned with."

"We will not change our philosophy, and tactics are meaningless because you have to be realistic if someone comes after you," he said. "If my chances of ending up in an institution are good ... then why not stand up and fight?"

Trudell is a high school drop-out who later attended a two-year college without graduating.

He said he was a drunk before the age of 21.

Trudell said Indians of Duck Valley had the highest suicide rate in the country back in 1970. He blames the high suicide rate and alcoholism in the Indian community on oppression from the white man.

"Indians who are alcoholics commit emotional suicide," he said. "Their spirit has died so there's no constructive way for them to use the body."

Alcohol is the heroin of the reservation, he said.

"We don't hate white people, we'll never fight a man because he's white, we'll fight him because he's the enemy," Trudell said. "We want them to accept the truth of what the American system has done to the nonwhite people."

"I don't think the real enemy in this country is the average run-of-the-mill white man," he said. "The enemy is the value system."

Trudell said AIM's struggle, however, begins at the race level first because "the white system has imposed their culture on us and that makes it race."

Trudell added, "AIM, as far as I'm concerned, has been the most productive Indian organization of this century."

Trudell said he frowns on the use of the word militant when describing AIM, yet he feels the Indian community has gone through a radical change because the establishment has not been able to "buy off" AIM.

"What made us such a threat to the system is the fact that they couldn't buy us off," he said.

"How can we be militant if we didn't invent the gun?" he asked. "The white man does not object to an Indian, Chicano or black getting his head beat in, but yet he's non-violent. It just doesn't make sense."

Trudell said he has been arrested once a year over the past four years for his involvement with AIM. But he feels his days of going to jail are over, or at least the chance is very slight now.

"If they arrest me on anything, they're going to have to work like hell to do it," he said. "I'm not going to let the pigs get me on anything emotional, that's why I say if they arrest me they're going to have to work for it."

ANOTHER OR FROM NEVADA JURISDICTION RELATIVE TO THE ASSAULT WITH A DEADLY WEAPON CHARGE. ROBERTS SAID TRUDELL WAS THE VICTIM OF A "TRUMPED-UP CHARGE" AND TRUDELL MERELY HAD ACTED IN AN EFFORT TO DRAMATIZE THE PREDICAMENT OF THE STARVING INDIANS AT OWYHEE.

AS LAS VEGAS HAS ADVISED, TRUDELL LEFT THE OWYHEE INDIAN RESERVATION IN AUGUST, 1974, AND HAS BEEN ATTENDING VARIOUS AIM FUNCTIONS SINCE THAT TIME. HE, ACCORDING TO RELIABLE SOURCES, HAD NOT RETURNED TO THE RESERVATION AND COULD NOT HAVE BEEN THERE AT HIS TIME FOR MORE THAN THREE DAYS.

IT WOULD APPEAR THE INCIDENT WAS STAGED AND MERELY AN EFFORT ON THE PART OF TRUDELL TO GAIN SOME SORT OF NATIONAL PUBLICITY FOR AIM AND TO EMBARRASS POLICE. IT IS NOT KNOWN AT THIS TIME HOW THE UPI REPRESENTATIVE IN CARSON CITY WAS MADE AWARE OF THE INCIDENT SO QUICKLY BUT THE SPEED WITH WHICH HE ATTEMPTED TO GET AHOLD OF THE BIA OFFICER EN ROUTE TO OWYHEE LENDS CREDENCE TO THE THEORY THAT THIS WAS A "STAGED INCIDENT".

FOLLOWING THE ARREST OF TRUDELL BY BIA AND TRIBAL INDIAN POLICE, THIS OFFICE DID NOT ISSUE ANY PRESS RELEASE WHATSOEVER. PRESS INQUIRIES WERE ANSWERED AND THE ONLY INFORMATION FURNISHED TO THE PRESS WAS THE FACT THAT TRUDELL HAD BEEN ARRESTED BY BIA AND INDIAN POLICE AND THAT THE FBI HAD FILED AN AUTHORIZED COMPLAINT CHARGING TRUDELL WITH VIOLATION OF TITLE 18, SECTION 113(C) AND SECTION 1152, U.S. CODE, AS WELL AS THE INFORMATION THAT HE WAS ARRAIGNED BEFORE A U.S. MAGISTRATE IN ELKO, NEV.

IN ADDITION TO THIS LETTER, [REDACTED] HAS ALSO TELEPHONICALLY CONTACTED GOVERNOR O'CALLAGHAN'S OFFICE STATING TRUDELL WAS THE VICTIM OF A "TRUMPED UP CHARGE" AND THAT TRUDELL MERELY HAD ACTED IN AN EFFORT TO DRAMATIZE THE PREDICAMENT OF STARVING INDIANS AT

IT IS APPARENT THAT THE MEMBERS OF AIM AND THEIR SYMPATHIZERS FELT THE MATTER WOULD BE HANDLED BY TRIBAL AUTHORITIES AND THEY WERE NOT PREPARED FOR THE FBI CHARGES AGAINST TRUDELL AND ARE GOING TO ANY LENGTH TO HAVE THEM DISMISSED. IT IS MY BELIEF THE CHARGES FILED AGAINST TRUDELL SHOULD NOT BE DISMISSED AND THE MATTER TAKEN INTO FEDERAL COURT. JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL

A characterization of the American Indian Movement (AIM) is set forth in an appendix page, attached hereto.

An article entitled "News Media Hit On Fairchild", which appeared in the April, 1975 edition of the Indian newspaper "Wassaja", a monthly publication of general circulation, printed in San Francisco, California, quoted John Trudell, National Chairman of the AIM, as saying that AIM wanted to seek "some objective journalism" but did not. The article advised that Trudell stated that the incident concerning the assault of a newsman by an AIM member at the Fairchild Plant in Shiprock, New Mexico, was unfortunate, but felt that news reports describing the incident were unfair. The article advised that Trudell claimed that the real reason behind the takeover of the Fairchild Plant was its "exploitation of the Navajo people."

On June 3, 1975, [redacted] Agency Special Officer, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), Shiprock, New Mexico, advised that Navajo Tribal Police Lieutenant Colonel [redacted] met with AIM leader John Trudell and several other Indians at Window Rock, New Mexico, to make arrangements with the Navajo Tribal Council to obtain the local fairgrounds for the 1975 AIM National Convention.

b7C

During June 10 through 21, 1975, Trudell was in Klamath Falls, Oregon to "help" a local hereditary Indian chief get his land from the Federal Government.

JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL

On July 18, 1975, captioned article "AIM Figure Arrested In Gun Battle" appeared in the "St. Paul, Minnesota Dispatch", a published daily, of general circulation and advised that John Trudell engaged in a gun battle between Federal agents, BIA police and local Elko and Owyhee, Nevada authorities. The article advised that Trudell was described as the acting head of AIM and was taken into custody after his house was surrounded on Duck Valley Indian Reservation, Duck Valley, Nevada, located five miles south of the Idaho border.

On July 18, 1975, an authorized complaint was filed by Special Agent of the FBI before U.S. Magistrate Jack Ames, Elko, Nevada, charging John Francis Trudell with violation of Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1152 (Assault With A Deadly Weapon).

Trudell was released on $10,000 bond on July 19, 1975. It was determined by a Special Agent of the FBI that following Trudell's release from custody, he returned to the Duck Valley Indian Reservation, near Owyhee, Nevada and is presently residing there.

Special Agent of the FBI
July 18, 1975

On July 22, 1975, [redacted] advised that on July 17, 1975, Trudell was arrested at his home on the Duck Valley Indian Reservation, Owyhee, Nevada by BIA Officers, for allegedly assaulting the proprietor of the local trading post on the Duck Valley Indian Reservation. Trudell is alleged to have used a pistol in assaulting the owner and he was arraigned before the U.S. Magistrate in Elko on July 18, 1975, on Federal assault charges.

JOHN FRANCIS TRUDELL

AMERICAN INDIAN MOVEMENT

A source advised on May 22, 1975, that the American Indian Movement (AIM) was formed in 1968 at Minneapolis, Minnesota, as a civil rights organization with stated goals to secure Indian self-determination and to eliminate the destructive tendencies of Christianity, white oriented education and the federal government from Indian life, along with the yoke of the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA).

All AIM chapters, leaders and members are not considered violent-prone; however, AIM members led by various violent-prone leaders have participated in the takeover of the BIA Building, Washington, D.C., in November, 1972, and participated in confrontations with local authorities which resulted in violence at Scottsbluff, Nebraska; the Rapid City - Custer area of South Dakota; the Occupation of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, by force of arms from February 27, 1973, through May 8, 1973. Since that time AIM leaders, members and supporters have also been involved in numerous confrontations with local and federal authorities, including the killing of a deputy sheriff in Arizona, the severe beating of two police officers in South Dakota, and extensively damaging a county courthouse at Sioux Falls, South Dakota. Other incidents which AIM has been a party to included the takeover of the Alexian Brothers Novitiate, Gresham, Wisconsin, the Fairchild Plant, Shiprock, New Mexico, and a Pork Plant in Wagner, South Dakota, all occurring in early 1975.

Character: CRIME ON INDIAN RESERVATION - ASSAULT WITH A

Synopsis: Information filed U. S. District Court, Reno, Nevada, on August 7, 1975, dismissed in U. S.
District Court on 11/6/75, as subject is not an Indian.

- C -

DETAILS:

On October 24, 1975, the subject and his attorney appeared in U. S. District Court, Reno, Nevada, to argue motions concerning the information filed against the subject in U. S. District Court, Reno, on August 7, 1975.

At this time, the Court denied all of the motions filed on behalf of the subject and the subject made the statement in open court that this Federal Court had already determined the subject's guilt, prior to this matter going to trial.

As a result of investigation conducted by the Bureau of Indian Affairs concerning the subject, it was determined that the subject is not an Indian, he is not a member of the Sante Sioux tribe, and is not listed on the rolls of this tribe as an Indian.

The Bureau of Indian Affairs determined that the subject's father was a Caucasian, and his mother is a Mexican American. Further that he was raised by a step-father named TRUDELL.

As it was determined that the subject was not an Indian, the information that had been filed against the subject in U. S. District Court, Reno, Nevada, was dismissed in U. S. District Court, Reno, on November 6, 1975.

Dear Congressman Dellums:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your telegram dated February 14, 1979, concerning the fire at John Trudell's home resulting in the tragic deaths of his immediate family.

The initial investigation was conducted by Bureau of Indian Affairs officers who indicated no arson was involved. At the request of the United States Attorney's office in Nevada, the Nevada State Fire Marshal's office began an investigation on February 13, 1979, which is continuing. Their preliminary findings indicate the fire was accidental; however, they are not eliminating the possibility of arson at this time.

Please be assured that if it is determined the cause of this fire was arson, we will immediately institute an investigation.

Sincerely yours,

Dear President Carter:

You are no doubt aware of the fire of suspicious origin that destroyed the home of John Trudell, American Indian Movement leader, and took the lives of his wife and young children at Duck Valley Paiute-Shoshone Reservation in northern Nevada. At that time John Trudell was in Washington, D.C., conducting a vigil for Leonard Peltier at the Supreme Court.

Since John Trudell has been a leader in the work of the Minnesota Citizens Review Commission on the F.B.I., it is once apparent that the F.B.I. could not approach an investigation of this fire with proper objectivity. Therefore, I requested that the FBI not be allowed to investigate this case, as the situation involves a clear conflict of interest.

Dear Ms. [redacted]

Your recent letter to the President expressing your views concerning the fire at the home of John Trudell earlier this year was referred to the FBI where it was received on May 25th.

For your information, the initial investigation into this tragedy was conducted by Bureau of Indian Affairs officers who indicated no arson was involved. At the request of the United States Attorney's Office in Nevada, the Nevada State Fire Marshal's Office began an investigation into this matter on February 13, 1979, and that office subsequently ruled that the fire was accidental. Hence, no FBI investigation was conducted.
